

in the moon of wintertime I (Acrylic) by Marybeth Leis Druery

Marybeth Leis Druery creatively expresses her commitment to a world where we care for each other—through her art and her work with the Hamilton based charity Student Open Circles, which brings together a diversity of students to explore values, spirituality, and social justice and to make a difference through local volunteering. As a trained Spiritual Director, she offers a supportive space to listen for meaning in life, integrating creative expression into individual companioning and group workshops.

100% of art sales support Student Open Circles StudentOpenCircles.com

marybethleisdruery.ca